

I am vehemently opposed to your intention to deregulate ownership of media companies. We're returning to the era of corporate monopolies, not just in the media but many other sectors of business. The charge of the FCC is to serve the people. America's democracy will be sorely compromised if you allow a few companies to run all the media outlets in the country.